1) The ~~F.A.B.~~ Residency has asked us to ~~also~~ issue instructions regarding the prompt interchange of information relating to crime and bad characters with the neighbouring British Police. The information is to be given in Forms A & B (pp. 13 & 15 of enclosure Coll. No 7). The D.G. has nothing to say against the adoption of these ~~forms~~ rules. His circular No 17 ~~is~~ is not a sufficient substitute for the adoption of these forms. They may be ordered to be immediately adopted.

2 We have not been asked to adopt the forms relating to surveillance of criminals, but * a copy of the order of the Govt of India regarding their adoption have been forwarded. From the order of the Govt. of India it will be seen that they desire that the Forms prescribed by them should be adopted throughout India: and the adoption of Forms A & B referred to above (which we have been asked to adopt) presupposes that we keep a Village Crime Note Book & Surveillance Register. The entries in Forms A & B cannot conveniently be made ~~under~~ without the Village Crime Note Book & the Surveillance registers are also maintained. But as regards these latter forms the D. G. says that since they do not give information about criminal gangs when such information is entered in the Surveillance Regr, and that the forms are not as suitable as those in now in use in Mysore. An examination of the forms now prescribed for British India shows that they are except in the with regard to gangs, they are eminently suitable for the object for which they are intended & are in several respects superior to our present forms. These forms may therefore be ordered to be adopted. If they are adopted the Registers of K.D's (Forms 62A) and the Regr of previous convictions (31A) will become unnecessary in Police Stns as the village note Book & the Surveillance Regr will give all the particulars.

3. As regards gangs the recommendations of the Commission are contained in Chapts VII paras 137 & 138 of the Report. The Govt of India reserved this question for separate consideration (Vide para 89 of the Govt of India Resolr of 21.3.05). The recommendations of the Commission are (1) that all criminal gangs should be registered and (2) that the finger impressions of all the members should be taken. We may ask the Residency for information as to what orders the Govt of India have passed regarding this subject: but in the meantime the Registers of permanent & wandering gangs (Forms 55A & 55B) may be ordered to be continued.

4. The only other Form which the D.G. refers to is the Register of suspicious characters & strangers (Form 34) which police are expected to maintain. The Govt. of India prescribes no forms for village headmen: and as long as village headmen do not make enquiries about suspicious characters and strangers and continue to keep the thana-incharge officer informed, the maintenance of a register by them is not of much consequence. But in order to prevent made information obtained by one patel available for his successor and for other purposes it seems desirable that patels should be asked to maintain registers showing all information obtained by them and furnished to the Police Station. A modification of form No 34 may perhaps be necessary.

5. Paragraph 139. Surveillance of dangerous criminals:- The proposals of the Police Commission under this head have been accepted by all local Governments except that of the United Provinces, which prefers its own system and considers that it would be unadvisable to change it for one which, while resembling it in essentials, is less complete in detail. The Government of India are reluctant to interfere with a system which is the result of much careful consideration, but the Inspector General himself admits that it has taken four years to instil even a tolerable knowledge of it into his Police officers. If the United Provinces alone were concerned the Government of India would gladly leave the existing rules unchanged. But in view of the development of inter-provincial crime, it is essential that in this matter the practice throughout India should be uniform and it is clear that the united Provinces System is too elaborate for general adoption. The Governor General in Council has, therefore, decided that the rules and forms given in Appendix VII of the Police Commissioner's Report, with the modifications shown in the enclosures to this letter, shall be introduced in all provinces. With regard to the responsibility of village headmen and watchmen for reporting the movement of bad characters, the Government of India are of opinion that no legislation is needed and that the terms of section 45 (f) of the Criminal Procedure Code are sufficiently comprehensive.

6. Paragraph 141. Communication of Information:- The Government of India agree with the Commission in their condemnation of the indifference of Police officers to what occurs outside the limits of their jurisdiction, and in their insistence upon the necessity for the prompt interchange of information relating to crime and bad characters. They accept the Commission's conclusion that the latter is one of the points of Police Administration in respect of which uniformity of action is required throughout the country and they accordingly direct the neral adoption of the rules and forms on this subject given in pendix VII of the report. Orders will be issued separately upon t oposal that Police officers should be allowed to pay for legrams and railway tickets by requisition notes.

From,

F. E. C. Carr Esquire,
Inspector General of Police
in Mysore.

To,

B. K. Venkata Varada Iyengar Esquire, Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,
General and Revenue Departments.

Sir,

Your reference, letter No. J 3169 dated 14th May 1906 requesting me, (1) to issue necessary instructions for the prompt interchange of information relating to crime and bad characters, by the Mysore Police, with the neighbouring British Police, and (2) to take steps to give effect to the orders of the Government of India No. 1112/1120 dated 8th November 1905, extract of which was enclosed in the letter under - reference.

2. I have the honour to forward for information, copies of the marginally noted orders which have already been issued by me: the first directs and regulates correspondence upon routine matters, between the Mysore Police and the bordering Police of Madras : the second issues directions for the periodical meetings of officers of the Mysore Province, with those of the frontier British Districts in Madras, Bombay, and Coorg : the last relates to the exchange of information regarding stolen property, absconding offenders and the movements of Criminal gangs.

Order No 9 Dated August 1905.
" " 7th September 1905
" No 11 " 5th December 1905.
" No 17 "

3. The whole question has engaged my earnest attention for some time past, and I may be pardoned if I quote from a memorandum forwarded to Government (para 6) in which speaking of my duties as a controlling authority, I write as follows:-

" Without some such central authority (as the Inspector -
" General of Police) the work of District Police Officers -
" must of necessity be spasmodic and disconnected, each -
" District Officer working more or less for his own hand,
" without intelligent co-operation with his neighbours or
" with Police Officers beyond the border. This co-opera" tion is most needed in the matter of the surveillance of " criminal gangs, and the following up of clues in difficult
" and complicated professional crime.

4. As regards the surveillance of dangerous criminals, - under our present system the village Patel or Headman, is required to keep a register of suspicious strangers and gangs, and he is - supposed to inform the Police at once of any movements of such persons in or through his jurisdiction.

Again Head Stations keep registers (1) of Convictions (2) of K.D.s or- Known Depredators, who have been convicted more than once under Chapters XII & XVII of the I.P.C.; and of all suspicious and dangerous criminals (3) of Wandering Gangs, in which all criminal gangs are entered, with their movements (4) of Permanent gangs of the same species as those entered in the former register, but who reside within the limits of the station which registers them.

Further all Districts keep registers of all K.D.s, and Gangs, of their respective Districts. Lastly in the Mysore Police - Gazette all movements of Foreigners and Foreign Gangs, entering or quitting the State, are published.

5. The above registers are, to all intents and purposes, exactly the same as those kept up by the Madras Police. Am I to understand from the Government of India Order under reference, that these forms and registers are to be abolished, and the forms given in Appendix VII of the Police Commission's Report substituted for them. If this is the case, then it appears to me, that we shall have no register of the movements of wandering or permanent gangs; unless it is proposed to enter these in what is called the "Surveillance Register," together with information regarding K.D.s , Suspects, Strangers, and Foreigners.

Flag O page 1.

6. With all due deference to the proposals of the Police Commission on this subject, in my opinion, this would be a great mistake, and would in the end complicate instead of simplifying matters.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J.C. Ewart

in the rules adopted in the State ~~regarding~~ for the surveillance of bad characters and inter-change of information as to their movements being uniform with the rules in force in the neighbouring British Indian districts. The Inspector General of Police to whom the question was referred is of opinion that the rules and forms prescribed by the Govt. of India, viz, with regard to the maintenance of Village Crime Note Books, Surveillance Registers, and Bad Character Rolls are suitable for adoption in Mysore the only modification suggested by him being that instead of having a separate Village Crime Note Book for each village the entries relating to all the villages within the limits of a Police Station may be made in one register, a sufficient number of pages being allotted to each village, including the hamlets attached to it.

2. After careful consideration the Govt. of H. H. the Maharaja of Mysore have decided that the Rules and forms prescribed by the Govt. of India for British Indian Provinces should be introduced in the State with the slight modification shown in the enclosure to this order. The Govt. agree with the D.G. in considering that under the circumstances existing in Mysore it is unnecessary to open a separate Village Crime Note Book for each village. It will be enough if a sufficient number of pages is allotted for each village in one or several books, as may be found convenient, to be kept at each Police Station.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No: J.563/Police 173-05-6, dated 28th August 1906, I have the honor to reply as follows:-

1. "The Village Crime Note Book" as proposed by the Government of India is to all intents and purposes the exact counterpart of our "Village Register", (Police serial No: 24), except that the same information is entered in the columns lengthwise, instead of crosswise; and that the column showing market days &c., is omitted in our Register; as we keep a separate list of markets &c., in each Station. I concur in thinking that we should make the Asli or head village, inclusive of hamlets or Dakhle villages, our unit; but I do not propose to open a separate book or register for each village, as in quite 50 % of our villages there would be no entry in the "Village Crime Note Book" under Part II (Crime Register), or Part III (Conviction Register); and probably only a few entries under Part IV or Part V.

I think therefore it would suit our purpose better to open "The Village Crime Note Book", in the form suggested, for each"Station", a sufficient number of pages of the "Note Book" being set apart for each village, according to requirement as is done now in our K.D. Register with regard to each convict By this arrangement we shall amalgamate our present "Village Register" (Police serial No: 24) "Conviction Register" (Police serial No: 31 A) and our K.D. Register (Police serial No: 62 A) into one "Village Crime Note Book".

2. As regards the proposed "Surveillance Register" and "bad character rolls A and B", I think these are good Forms, which may be adopted in their entirety with advantage.

3. As regards our "Register of Suspicious looking Strangers" now supposed to be kept up by Patels, (Police serial No: 34), I consider the present Form is useful enough, the unfortunate fact however being that it is seldom if ever maintain properly; partly because the majority of our Patels are illitera and partly because the Police are slack, and do not insis on Patels' writing them up.

On the whole, it would be really better to discontinue this Register, as the new Mysore Police Regulation, and the present Rules, make it incumbent on Patels to report all arriva and departures of suspicious looking strangers or gangs; and it is quite sufficient if Patels obey these orders, by reporting by word of mouth, or through the Thalwars or other village servants, all movements of suspicious persons within the village limits.

4. I am gratified to find, that Government concur with me in thinking that our "Gang Registers A and B" should be retained.

5. Should Government decide to adopt the Government of India's Forms, may I request that the Superintendent of

Stationery

Stationery be instructed to send me "proofs" before final issue.

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Inspector General of Police.

"Village Crime Note Book" N & Forms set which (as modified by the Govt of India) are given at pages 4 to 11 of the enclosure to this letter. An examination of these forms shows that, except, ~~as pointed out in your letter~~ in regard to the movements of permanent wandering gangs as observed in para 5 of your letter No. 6250 dated the 21st May 1906, they appear to be quite suitable for adoption in the State. Of course the chief thing is that patels should make enquiries about suspicious characters + strangers,
and have an eye on the movements
of criminals residing in the village,
and keep the Station Incharge constantly informed of everything of importance. But it will no
